Leopardstar's Death

It has been confirmed that Leopardstar has died from diabeties.

Ferncloud's Kits

[image]

Did you know that only ONE of Ferncloud's SEVEN kits are still around? Here is what happened, Shrewpaw died from a monster. Larchkit and Hollykit died from starvation. Foxleap died from wounds and I forget how Icecloud died. Finally, Spiderleg went missing. Poor Birchfall, he doesn't have any close family left other then Whitewing and his daughters. But still, maybe FerncloudXDustpelt were never meant to be.

Feathertail's Future

[image]

There are two theories for what would've happened if Feathertail had lived.

The first is that Stormfur ended up saving Crowpaw, and he died instead. So Stormfur is dead, meaning Brooke will not become mates with Stormfur. The Tribe cats would believe that Stormfur was the prophecied one, and Crowpaw would possibly be named Crowstorm after Stormfur. The five cats would return home, and then the Clan's would arrive at the lake. However, since there is no Stormfur, he wouldn't have chosen to stay with Brooke. Shortly after arriving at the lake, Feathertail would reject Crowstorm and tell him that they couldn't be mates.

Feathertail would then become mates with Reedwhisker. Crowstorm would still save Leafpool, but take her in as his mate at first because he wanted to make Feathertail jealous. But he would end up falling in love with her, and by the middle of Sunset, Feathertail would probably be pregnant with Reedwhisker's kits. Around the same time Breezepelt is born, that's when Feathertail's kits would be born. The Leafpool thing would've still happened, meaning the Three would still exist. Let's just say that Feathertail had four kits (three toms and a she-kit) named Primrosekit, Greykit, Stormkit, and Silverkit. They would all be at the gathering together, since they would be apprentices. Feathertail would be there too. Then Greystripe comes and Feathertail rushes over to greet her father. So skip to more important details.

Feathertail's three kits would probably become warriors near the middle of Eclipse, Primroseheart, Silvertail, Greymoon, and Stormstrike.

The second theory is that nobody helps Crowpaw, therefore, he dies. The Tribe cats would still be holding Stormfur for another moon because Sharptooth would still be alive. After Sharptooth dies (most likely from deathberries) they would return home. WindClan would be hostile towards the five because when they return, they meet a patrol of WindClan warriors, who stop them. They would probably fight, since they return and announce that Crowpaw was dead.

Skipping to the Great Journey. Stormfur would've chosen to stay with Brooke, and they would become mates. WindClan would be hostile because Crowpaw was dead. So skipping to the battle over Onestar's leadership. Leafpool would be dead because Crowpaw wouldn't have been there to save her from falling to her death. And dead Leafpool means no Jayfeather, Hollyleaf, or Lionblaze. It also means no Breezepelt. So when Cinderpelt dies, there would be no medicind cat, so Brightheart would most likely take over for awhile and train a random kit (Like the Puddleshine situation), and that random kit would be either Mousekit (Mousewhisker) or Hazelkit (Hazeltail). I'm just going to say that Mousekit was chosen.

Also, no Leafpool would mean that Dawnflower, Pebblekit, and Minnowkit would die because Leafpool wasn't in RiverClan to help Mothwing. Back to Feathertail, pretty much the same would happen to Feathertail as I mentioned in theory one, but Crowpaw wouldn't be involved. So Squirrelflight and Brambleclaw would become mates, and Squirrelflight would actually bear Brambleclaw's kits earlier, Alderkit and Sparkkit. Meaning there would be no Leafpool problems.

Alderkit would become a medicine cat apprentice (because he still has the same personality) and would be mentored to Mousewhisker, who became a medicine cat earlier. Sparkkit would become a warrior apprentice and her mentor would be Ashfur. Except they don't have powers -_-. Sparkpaw will become Sparkpelt at the end of Eclipse, but only Sparkpelt. Cinderpaw would still be an apprentice, because Jayfeather wouldn't have suggested the water therapy for her, she would become Cinderheart eventually and help cats like Briarlight does. No Jayfeather also means that tons of sick cats would die in Long Shadows, but Alderpaw would eventually ask RiverClan for herbs, so now Millie and Briarkit are dead.

He would earn he med cat name in the middle of Long Shadows. But unfortunatly, Alderheart and Sparkpelt would die in Long Shadows, because Squirrelflight wouldn't have a truth to tell during Ashfur's confrontation. She would tell the Clan that he murdered them though, and he would be exiled. The end!

If you would like to see more about Theory Two, i'm making a book about it called When The Leaves Crumble. Oh, and there is a vote at the end of this chapter.

Who do you want to be the medicine cat in the book? Your options are Honeykit, Mousekit, and Hazelkit. Comment down below.

Alderpaw's Dead Brothers And Sisters

[image]

We all know that Squirrelflight had kits, well, Alderpaw and Sparkpaw aren't the only kits, in fact, aren't the only litter. Squirrelflight actually had a litter of kits with Brambleclaw some time before Omen O The Stars, but they were all stillborn. Then, in her second litter, they had four kits. But two of them died leaving just Alderpaw and Sparkpaw. Alderpaw actually DOES have a brother, but he is waiting for him in StarClan.

ThistleclawXSnowfur

[image]

Why don't people ship this!? Snowfur really loved Thistleclaw, even after he went to the dark forest.

Forgiveness Please

[image]

We know what happened and Lionvlaze and Jayfeather an Hollyleaf got mad a Lefpool and Squirrelflight. Well it took about TWO YEARS AND 9 MONTHS TO FORGIVE THEM!! I mean, they are great cats and all, but REALLY!? They only forgave them when they did when Hollyleaf did so, at least, thats how it looked.

Tigerheart's Name

[image]

Tigerheart was named after Tigerstar, obviously. But Tawnypelt named him after Tigerstar because he will represent what Tigerstar should've been, a loyal warrior. This is why Blackstar gave him the suffix "heart" to prove that his heart is loyal to his Clan. Anyways, I love the name Tigerheart, it sounds so awesome!!!

What Happened To Spiderleg? (Revealed!!)

[image] [image]

We actually don't know what happened to Spiderleg...YET!! In the Apprentice's Quest he just disappears and is never mentioned again. He literally just goes poof , and what really gets under my skin is that, no cat cares and they don't even mention him!! Anyways, the Erin's confirmed that they will reveal what happened to him in Thunder And Shadow. So I will update this when that book comes out. For now, read this funny comic about Spiderleg.

And we're back! You would be surprised, but Spiderleg died from greencough. Jayfeather says so himself. Case closed.

Whitewing Is The Third!

[image]

Whitewing actually should've been the third, not Dovewing. At first, Firestar actually thought that she was, so he gave her special treatment as an apprentice. (Also, the Erins haven't come up with the Power Of Three prophecy yet until Twilight so...) Also, the only reason Dovewing was the third was because they couldn't come up with a power for Hollyleaf, meaning that she was the third the whole time! Anyways, great job Erins...look what you created because you couldn't come up with a power.

Firestar's Parents

[image]

Firestar's parents were Jake and Nutmeg. Allot of you probably know this and that Jake is also Scourge's father making Scourge and Firestar half-brothers, so I won't explain allot.

Firestar's Greatness

[image]

Firestar is definitely a Mary-Sue, I mean he was ok at first when he was a apprentice and young warrior. But at the end of Forests Of Secrets, he was like all perfect and his way was always right. His family is in a ton of prophecies!! Think about it, he was the fire that saved the Clan. The power of three prophecy was kin of HIS KIN. And guess who the fourth cat who would save them all was? I was hoping, dreaming that it would be Ivypool. But nope! Firestar again! When he died everybody was talking about how great he was, where when Bluestar died, they only cared for like a third of The Darkest Hour, and then she was FORGOTTEN!! Also it's like everybody always agrees if Firestar says it's good.

Hollyleaf's Name

[image]

A Lot of theories and fact things say that:
Hollyleaf was named after Hollykit, the first patient Leafpool lost

But this IS NOT TRUE!! Squirrelflight was the one that named Hollyleaf, it was stated in Leafpool's Wish. Squirrelflight gave the prefix 'Holly' because her fur was a dark as holly bark. Leafpool wanted to name Hollyleaf Crowkit, but Squirrelflight explained how it would make it obvious. The suffix leaf was after Leafpool, which Squirrelflight also requested.

Crowfeather's Kin

[image]

Crowfeather is related to the first leaders of WindClan and the first medicine cat. It has been confirmed that he is related to Moth Flight, making his related to Windstar and Gorsestar as well. This also means that he is NOT pure blood, for Moth Flight gave up her kits to the other Clans.

Hawkfrost And Ivypool

[image]

Hawkfrost never loved Ivypool, despite all the rumours. He thought of her like a younger sister. This is why he was so mad when he chose the Clans instead of him, he felt like he was actually betrayed by a family member.

Twigpaw and Violetpaw

I have two theories on who their parents are:

The first is that Hawkwing is the father, and Pebbleshine is the mother. The reason why I say this is because Pebbleshine was expecting Hawkwing's kits when she was taken away, and Twigpaw is grey, just like Hawkwing, while Violetpaw has white markings, while Pebbleshine is white with multicoloured flecks.

So, let's say, when Pebbleshine was dropped off at the farm, she left shortly after arriving. But instead of trying to find the rest of SkyClan, she decided to try and find ThunderClan instead (so later on they could meet up again). So the journey went on, but Pebbleshine had to stop near a thunderpath because she had to give birth to her kits.

Pebbleshine decided to put her journey to a halt until her kits were weaned, and their temporary nest was just below the thunderpath. So that is the first theory.

The second isn't as long, it's:

Darktail is the father, and the mother is an unknown she-cat. The only evidence I really have is because Violetpaw is black, and Darktail has black markings.

The other thing is though, we never really knew much about Darktail's past. We only know that he (possibly) used to be a rogue. So it's possible that he fell in love with some random she-cat and left her before he knew that she was pregnant.

Comment what theory you believe.
